

General Pope's Official Dispatch

Headquarters Field of Battle,
Groveton, Near Gainesville,
August 30, 1862.

Major-General Halleck, Commander-in-Chief, Washington.

We fought a terrific battle here with combined forces of the enemy, which ended with continued fury from daylight until after dark, by which the enemy was driven from the field, which we now occupy. Our troops are too much exhausted to push matters, but I shall do so in the course of the morning, as soon as Fitz John Porter's corps comes up from Manassas. The enemy is still in our front, but badly used up. We have lost not less than 8,000 men, killed and wounded, and from the appearance of the field the enemy has lost at least two to our one. He stood strictly on the defensive, and every assault was made by ourselves. Our troops have behaved splendidly. The battle was fought on the identical battlefield of Bull Run, which greatly increased the enthusiasm of our men. The news just reaches me from the front that the enemy is retreating toward the mountain. I go forward at once to see. We have made great captures, but I am not able yet to form an idea of their extent.

[Signed] JOHN POPE,
Major-General Commanding.

The Battle Renewed on Saturday.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The enemy was heavily re-enforced yesterday, and attacked Pope's army before Sumner's and Franklin's arrival. The attack was boldly met, and a severe battle followed.

The advantage on the whole was with the enemy, and Pope fell back to Centreville with his whole army in good condition, and has been joined by Sumner and Franklin. He occupies the strongest position in the vicinity of Washington, and is expected promptly to renew the contest.

Every effort should be urged to hasten forward the new troops.

More of Saturday's Fight.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 30. Heavy firing was heard to day in the direction of Centreville. Telegraphic communication has been re-established to Manassas. There are still a large number of troops in Alexandria awaiting transportation to the battlefield.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Pope's statement that Heintzelman's corps would move on the enemy at daylight is confirmed by heavy firing from that vicinity. Rumors of various successes reach us, but we need confirmation.

Yesterday the rebel scouts were seen at Langley's near the Chain Bridge. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a surprise in that direction.

The impression prevails that the rebels have been entraped, and the result of the recent maneuvering is looked for intently.

Gen. Pope's Conduct Highly Approved.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Gen. Pope's conduct is highly praised in Government and other quarters.

Nearly 1000 Government clerks repaired to the battlefields to attend to the dead and wounded on both sides. Gen. W. Lawrence took all the blacks, here and sent them to transport the sick and wounded.

The following is gathered from private sources:

Tuesday night a report reached Warrenton Junction that Jackson was again in our rear and had taken a position on the railroad near Bristow, 4 miles south of Manassas, and burned two bridges, tore up the tracks and taken prisoners all the guards along the road. This information subsequent events proved true.

PHILADELPHIA, September 1.—A correspondent of Forney's Press, writing from near Centreville, last evening says: "Last evening, about five o'clock, McDowell's left flank was turned by a cavalry force 5,000 strong. McDowell's corps being on the left of our army, and the rebel cavalry being supported by infantry, the position of McDowell's entire corps was fearful."

The enemy, according to the reports of prisoners, numbers about 250,000 men.

The rebels occupy the outer extremity of the old Bull Run battlefield at present, their front being at the furthest point of the old field. They hold their old rifle-pits, and they are bold and impudent.

Our army was re-enforced at noon today by at least 60,000 of the most effective men in the field.

Eight hundred prisoners were sent forward from this point this morning to Alexandria. This makes 1,500 that have been forwarded to Washington.

A very intelligent prisoner, a commissioned officer, told me that Stonewall Jackson made an address to his army day before yesterday, in which he urged his men to stand firm and fight to the last, for if they were beaten then, all their hopes for the Southern Confederacy would be lost. This man also reports that in Friday's battle, Jackson made a very narrow escape from capture.

Persons supposed to be well informed say that we have taken at least 17,000 prisoners from the enemy in all the engagements, but many of these were paroled on the spot and sent back.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 28.—A meeting, called yesterday twelve miles south east of Memphis, to organize a guerrilla band, was surrounded and captured by a company of cavalry, and eighteen prisoners

A detachment of Nationals occupied Herando on Thursday, capturing a train of cars from Granada. A rebel force is said to be at Cold Water, a few miles distant. Villipigue, with 9,000 men, is reported moving through Grand Junction. Prominent Secessionists say Bragg's army has gone to Western Virginia, and will soon appear on the Kanawha river, and march to the Ohio river.

From Richmond Ky.

LINCOLN, Ky., August 31.—Surgeon McDermot reached the city this city this evening from Richmond, and reports our loss yesterday at 125 killed and 350 wounded. He obtained permission from General Kirby Smith to come here for a supply of medical and hospital stores.

Col. Toppiuz, 71st Indiana is killed; also Lieut Col Sout.

Col. McMillen, Major Brumback and 52 others of the 95th Ohio are wounded. Major Dohelin is wounded. Colonel Lucas is killed.

An equal number of the enemy is killed and wounded.

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO HEALTH AND VIGOR.

THE NEW GYMNASIUM.

For Men, Women, and Children. With translation of Prof. Kloss's Dumb Bell Instructor and Prof. Schreber's Pongmestikon.

BY DIO LEWIS, M. D., Proprietor of the Essex Street Gymnasium, Boston. With Three Hundred Illustrations. One volume 12mo. Price $1 00.

No general Magazine paper has excited more general interest than the article in the August Atlantic, on "The New Gymnastics." The present work is a complete exposition of the system of which that article gave a synopsis. The author of this work has been for many years engaged in teaching Gymnastics. The book describes and illustrates his new system of physical training. This system has had the practical test of long and varied use. It comprises exercises with Dumb Bells, Rings, Wands, Clubs, etc., all of which are made perfectly clear by full explanations, while many are illustrated by pictorial representations of the position of the body required to perform them.

The Dumb Bell Instructor, connected with this work, is of the highest interest and importance. It is designed for home use, and gives a great variety of Dumb Bell exercises, together with a selected progressive series of every day practices.

The Pongmestikon is a very simple, useful and cheap piece of gymnastic apparatus upon which all gymnastic exercises may be performed, and which can be introduced, at small cost into any private house. It is fully described and illustrated in this volume.

The "New Gymnastics" should be read in every family in the land where exercises is valued as a means of health. Ladies, especially, will find it a great variety of easy, simple, and invigorating exercises, all of which may be practiced at their homes.

For sale by all booksellers, or sent postpaid to any address on the receipt of ONE DOLLAR, by the publishers.
